

C. Project Rubric - There are four criteria (Content, Creativity, Organization and Professionalism).

Criteria	Not Yet (1-2)	Good (3-5)	Excellent (6-8)
Content	Project does not show enough knowledge or thought into the topic Project did not exemplify the themes of democracy or community in in-depth ways.	Project displays some knowledge of the topic. Project displays some interesting insights into the themes of democracy and community	Project shows insight and depth of knowledge and insight into the topic. Project spoke directly to the topic and offers many interesting insights into the theme of democracy and community.
Score for Content
Creativity/Originality	Project seems generic and not yet finished.	Project was presented in an unusual way that made the audience think about the themes of democracy and community.	Project was unique and displayed ideas about democracy and community that were fresh and exciting and helped the audience understand these issues in a more insightful way.

Score for Creativity
Organization	Project did not yet have a cohesive flow and details of work were jumbled and disconnected, not leading to a coherent theme or topic.	Project had details that clearly helped develop and support the main topic or theme attempting to be presented.	Project had wonderful detail and elaboration that thoroughly developed the work. These details fit together and gave the project a coherent whole.
Score for Organization
Professionalism: Pride in Work	Project did not have a finished appearance.  Details were messy, and the project was not well edited.	Project was edited and generally neat with a finished and completed feel.	Project was neat and well-designed. Details were well edited and captivated. The project felt as if the creators have put a lot of time and effort in completion and revision.
Score for Professionalism
Final Score Total Possible = 32 points			